

GIRLS! GROW LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR LUSTROUS, CHARMING—25 CENT DANDERINE

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed, and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre and try as you will, you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

JUSTICE AND COMMON SENSE

A KANSAS JURIST WHO HAS
SWEEPED COBWEBS FROM COURT HOUSE STATUTE.

If there had been such a figure on the Russell county, Kansas, court house, the statue of Justice would have clapped her stone hands in acclaim seven years ago when Jacob C. Ruppenthal ascended the bench as judge of the twenty-third judicial district. In the process of clapping her stone hands the statue of Justice probably would have dropped her stone scales, causing a slight disarrangement of those proverbial balances. But no matter. There is a general belief that these scales as a class are out of order anyway, and certainly as a member of scales of Justice, Jacob C. Ruppenthal in the last seven years has shown himself to be capable of accepting the largest orders. His judicial district is one of the largest in the United States, containing six counties. As counties go, too, these are what might be termed large, thick and unskinned, with plenty of out of doors in them, containing as they do 1,600 square miles of territory, and being longitudinally 150 miles and horizontally 50 miles, as the map discloses, and having a diameter of some 8,000 miles, as any physical geography will testify.

Given this rather airy and open and full-grown judicial district to mend in, and given this rather efficient repairer of judicial machinery to do the mending, and given the aforementioned rather ill-adjusted balances to tinker with, results should have been forthcoming. And they have been. Judge Ruppenthal has made among others the following repairs in preconceived ideas of judicial procedure:

Some Judicial Repairs.

He has found that if an "if" is not dotted in a legal paper the court house will not necessarily blow up with a deafening detonation.

He has found that if a "the" has not been crossed in an information containing 1,238 words it does not necessarily follow that the writer thereof was making an earnest effort to undermine our institutions.

He has found in the preparation of legal papers that if the author has used only eighty or ninety words when he might have used eight or nine hundred, he should not be compelled to face a firing squad at sunrise.

He has found that it is necessary to shatter a precedent in the administration of justice in order to preserve some human right that can be done without reducing the constitutions of all the states in general and the constitution of the United States in particular to rags and tatters.

He has found that, if in order to expedite justice and save costs and accommodate litigants, he opens his court in the various counties at times and places not designated and provided, his district will not all crumble up.

He has found, too, it is not incompatible with his dignity to write mimeograph letters from time to time to the clerks and court officials in his district, calling their attention to methods by which the administration of justice may be made speedier, cheaper and surer. He has written scores of these letters and has not been indicted for misuse of the mails.

He has stopped the practice among lawyers of trading continuances, which delay justice, and has not been wholly incinerated by their glances.

He has simplified the practice of having juries, at a considerable saving to the taxpayers, not through any specific authorization in the law, but because there was nothing in the law against it, and he still lives, moves and has his being.

In fact, he has done most of the things that Honorable and Ancient Precedent has declared couldn't be done, and has found that Precedent has been laboring under a misapprehension for at least a thousand years.

They say in Russell that this new kind of a judge is not popular among the lawyers of his district. But he is so popular among the people of Russell, Ellis, Trego, Gove, Logan and Wallace counties that, while when he ran for judge the first time in 1907 as a democrat in a republican district in a contest with a sitting judge against whom there was the usual objection he received a majority of only nine votes, when he made the second race in 1911 with a stronger candidate against him his majority was 1,190. So much for the frequently desired intelligence of the voters.—Kansas City Star.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have Bladder trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a table spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.
